

A Dozen Tips For Freshman Band Parents

12. Please come to our Band Booster meetings-they are held every second Monday of the month in the band room. We're a fun group of enthusiastic parents that want to make a difference!
11. Bookmark the Charger Pride Band Booster website-It is updated weekly with lots of information on all of the band activities including pictures and results. WWW.carrollbands.org
10. Understand the Scrip program and how to use it to pay for your band fees.
9. Make sure that you are on the Band Booster E-Mail list for last minute information on band activities.
8. You are invited along with all band parents every Thursday night at 8:15 during fall practices to see a run through of the marching band program and see it get better and better every week.
7. You cannot have enough Royal Blue and White in your wardrobe. We're talking sweatshirts, jackets, hats, photo buttons, etc. for competitions in the fall. We will also have Carroll Spirit wear available for purchase soon.
6. You should know that there will be a sea of blue and white at the Band competitions this fall. Come and cheer on the kids with other parents and friends. Look for the large Carroll Charger Pride flag in the stands.
5. Black socks. The kids will be going through many pair. Try to pick some up on sale!
4. You might want to block out every Saturday in September and October on your calendars early.
3. Every freshman Band parent should know how to get involved now. Band is a lot of work-but also a lot of fun.
2. Watching your son or daughter compete on the field is an incredible experience for parents and families.
1. Remember this-by the end of high school, your child will have become an adult. By being involved with your child through band, you will get watch it happen!